Lt. General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

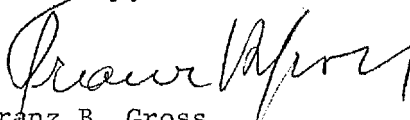

Just a short note following our conversation at the World Affairs Council meeting in Pittsburgh. The African Institute is giving instruction in Hausa and Lingala, as well as Swahili. Our Fulani course is not offered this year as the professor in charge is now with the University of Dakar.

It would be very kind of you to bring our program to the attention of the appropriate authorities to explore the possibility of any individuals or groups registering for these vital African Languages.

It was good to find someone who also graduated from Camp Ritchie, after so many years. Although we were a number of classes apart, we probably went through some similar experiences.

Thank you for coming to Pittsburgh and giving all of us an opportunity to hear the "other side".

Sincerely,

Franz B. Gross
Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
Professor of International Affairs and African Studies
